

Lunder Conservation Center presents

Conserving and Curating Media Art

Hugh Shockey and Michael Mansfield have partnered on a number of installations and exhibitions, including their work for Watch This! Revelations in Media Art and earlier projects such as Nam June Paik: Global Visionary.

Join Objects Conservator, L.H. (Hugh) Shockey, Jr. and Michael Mansfield, Curator of Film and Media, as they present a discussion on the challenges and triumphs of conserving and exhibiting media arts in the twenty-first century. Highlighting recent treatments executed in preparation for the Smithsonian American Art Museum's Watch This: Revelations in Media Art, our speakers will present an inside view into considerations of preservation and display that inform the creation of a media arts exhibition.

Wednesday, June 3 at 6:00 PM | McEvoy Auditorium | Free and Open to the Public

Smithsonian American Art Museum & National Portrait Gallery | 8th & G Street NW