

HANDS-ON EMERGENCY TRAINING

WATER SALVAGE FOR COLLECTIONS EMERGENCY

Whether it's a burst pipe or a flash flood, rescuing collections from a water emergency can be a daunting task. Learning to approach a collections emergency with a clear strategy and well-trained team can simplify the response and ensure your institution will recover swiftly to return to its mission.

DATE & TIME:

September 28th & 29th - Starts at 9:00 AM

Arrive as early as 8:15 AM to get coffee & bagels. Lunch is provided on both days.

AGENDA:

September 28th

9:00 AM to 10:00 AM

Presentations & Training Scenario

10:00 AM to 3:00 PM

Water Salvage Exercise 1

3:00 PM to 4:00 PM

Review & Discussion

September 29th

9:00 AM to 3:00 PM

Water Salvage Exercise 2

3:00 PM to 4:00 PM

Lessons Learned

LOCATION:

Dumbarton House

2715 Q Street NW
Washington, DC 20007

ADMISSION:

$65.00 - Includes food and supplies.

30 people total for the workshop.

First come first serve.

Contact Linda Gottfried: 216-544-9552

Checks can be sent to

PAYMENTS:

Linda Gottfried

Rockefeller Building
614 West Superior Ave
Suite 625
Cleveland, Ohio 44133

Credit Cards

lgottfried@aurorastorage.com

Payment must be made NO LATER than Sept 8th or people on the waiting list will get your spot.

Tours of Dumbarton House will be available after the seminar

TRAINING BY

Rebecca Kennedy

Preservation Specialist & Cultural Heritage First Aider
Smithsonian Institution

SPONSORS

HOLLINGER METAL EDGE
Archival Storage Materials
Abby A. Shaw

Bonsai Fine Arts
Scott Pittman

O'BRIEN SYSTEMS, INC.
Collections Storage Solutions
Kevin O'Brien

FAS
Fine Art Specialists
Ben Gage